Subject: MENTAL AT WESTLAKE

Related date/time: Oct-05-2011 (Wed.) 1210

The incident was not captured on in-car audio or video.

The incident was screened by Sgt. Grennon.

The suspect, [REDACTED], [REDACTED]-1988, was committed to Harborview medical center for a mental evaluation for the public's safety and his own.

On the listed date and time I was working a marked SPD walking beat with Officer Chase. We were flagged down by two AMR drivers who appeared to be dealing with a subject who was behaving erratically. When we drew close enough to see the subject we recognized him from 10-4-2011 as a person who had exhibited signs of mental illness. He was standing on the back of the ambulance talking to himself.

The AMR drivers informed us that they had been called by W/[REDACTED] to assist in getting the subject help at the hospital. I then met with W/[REDACTED] who stated that the subject had been behaving oddly since he got hit by a car. The subject came up directly opposite me and hit himself in the head with his fists several times and stated that he did not feel pain. I asked him if he would like to go to the hospital and he continued to punch himself. He then agreed to get on the gurney and go to the hospital. At one point he even sat on the gurney, but then got up and walked away. The subject walked west from the ambulance in the middle of the park and then north, next to a city truck with several wooden stakes in the back. The subject then picked up a pointed wooden stake from the truck. At this point I went over and grabbed the subject from behind and Officer Chase assisted me in dragging him on to the AMR gurney. Several protesters and the media were in the area and some of the incident was recorded on cameras and/or cell phones. Some of the protesters surrounded us as we placed the subject on to the gurney and yelled anti-police statements at us as we strapped him down. After the subject was strapped down he was transported to Harborview medical center. Officer Chase and myself had seen the subject on the previous day acting strangely. At one time Officer Chase even saw him eating another person's vomit off a public sidewalk.

(D. JOHNSON)

On 10/5/11 at 1311hrs I was working 2M53 uniform patrol in the City of Seattle. I was working as part of a task force assigned to a protest at Westlake Park 401 Pine St. The Officers in the task force were assigned to assist the Seattle Parks Department with enforcing the removal of tents on City of Seattle (SDOT, Parks Department) property.

Officers stood by at the edge of the park while Seattle Park Ranger Supervisor Brock Milliem contacted the owner of each tent and gave them a lawful order to pick up and remove their tents from the property. Those that chose to pick up their tents were allowed a reasonable length of time to do so. After those people left Officers entered the park with Seattle Park Rangers and other Parks employees. Officers were on hand to assist the Parks employees with contacting anyone who prevented the removal of the tents.

Sgt. Grenon spoke with each individual at the tents. These were suspects either remaining in tents or standing/sitting immediately outside of the tents preventing Parks employees from removing the tents. Sgt. Grenon told those remaining individuals that they had an opportunity to walk away and allow the Parks employees to remove the tents or be subject to arrest under SMC 12A.16.010 obstruction. The remaining people either answered that they wanted to be arrested or did not elect to walk away. All suspects were arrested for their inaction; remaining in or in front of the tents. Officers formed a perimeter for safety while an arrest team worked inside contacting the suspects. Some suspects were cooperative and did not resist Officers in any way. There were also suspects who resisted passively by going limp necessitating that they be carried by Officers to the transport van. Still others actively resisted Officers by refusing to move, resisting being handcuffed and/or pushing Officers to try and make their arrest more difficult.

During this time the crowd was surrounding Officers. They varied their behavior from pressing in to take pictures to groups locking arms and pushing hard against the Officers on perimeter. Those members of the crowd were clearly trying to break the line. There were other factors making the environment unsafe for arresting Officers. Several firecrackers were set off while arrests were being made. One person in the crowd opened what appeared to be a water bottle and sprayed water over the perimeter Officers also dousing several people in the crowd. The scene was very loud with protesters chanting, shouting and directly yelling in Officer's ears. Some chants were clearly part of the stated protest cause. Other chants were specifically anti-Police "all cops are bastards A C A B". The chants turned to an anti-Police slant while people in the crowd were attempting to disrupt the perimeter Officers.

After all of the tents were removed Officers withdrew from the Park. Parks employees continued to perform a cleaning of the park pressure washing and picking up trash.

Sgt Grenon screened all arrests.
